

Reading and Language Arts Websites For Penn-Trafford Parents

Strategies and suggestions to use at home in all areas of reading and language arts development including phonemic awareness, phonics, decoding, fluency, comprehension, spelling and vocabulary building.

Parent Websites

Literacy Matters

www.literacymatters.org

Reading Rockets

www.readingrockets.org

Family Education

www.familyeducation.com

Penn Area Public Library

(Help your students obtain a library card)

<http://www.pennlib.org/>

Reading Is Fundamental (Creating a Nation of Lifelong Readers)

www.rif.org/parents/

Scholastic

www.scholastic.com

Interactive Reading and Language Arts Websites for Primary and Intermediate Students

Reading Is Fundamental Student Games

www.rif.org/readingplanet/gamestation

Public Broadcasting System

www.pbskids.org

Starfall

www.starfall.com

Primary Games

www.primarygames.com

We Read:
Literacy and Education for Life
www.weread.org

Making Words
www.wordles.com

Headsprout
www.headsprout.com

Chateau Meddybemps Fun
www.meddybemps.com/funandgames.html

FunBrain
<http://www.funbrain.com/brain/ReadingBrain/ReadingBrain.html>

Websites for Fluency Related Reading Activities: These include books online for your reader to enjoy!

Weekly Reader
www.weeklyreader.com

Wired for Books Poetry
www.wiredforbooks.org/kids.htm

Poetry
www.poetry4kids.com

Book Hive
<http://www.plcmc.org/Bookhive/>

Create a Booklist
<http://bookadventure.org/qt/booklist.asp>

Penn-Trafford Online Text Books

Student Editions

1. Go to macmillanmh.com/ose
2. Student Login, use this access code to download the student edition for 6th grade: E5630A687E
3. Submit
4. Click on the third icon on the left of the page, you will be able to see the student pages of the textbook.

Treasures Website

1. Go to www.macmillanmh.com
2. Choose Reading, select Pennsylvania, and click go.
3. Click on either the students tab or families tab to utilize the activities, games and online learning features.