

Parent and Student Resources

The following websites have been found to be informative and useful by professionals and parents in our school district.

General Information

Council for Exceptional Children <http://www.cec.sped.org/>

This site offers valuable information and current research relating to numerous exceptionalities.

Tony Attwood <http://tonyattwood.com.au/>

Information provided for parents, professionals and people with Asperger's Syndrome.

Internet Special Education Resources

<http://www.iser.com/index.shtml>

This site offers research, numerous links, publications and a variety of resources.

Parent Links

PaTTAN <http://www.pattan.k12.pa.us/>

The Pennsylvania Training and Technical Assistance Network is a valuable resource of parent information in Pennsylvania.

Student Resources

Transition Site <http://www.pacareerlink.state.pa.us>

This site provides useful information for those pursuing a transition from a school to a work environment.

LD Teens <http://www.nclid.org/>

This site offers support for teenagers living with disabilities, including study tips and parent information.